

Radio Club

The Radio Club had their first meeting on Thursday, September 17, 1936. They had an election of new officers that resulted as follows: President--Raymond Pulliam; Vice President--Ralph Mashburn; Secretary--Nelson Smith; Treasurer--LaVerno Cotton; and Sergeant-at-arms--Robert Cox.

All the new members voted in to the club are: Roy Miller, Roy Daggett, Charles McGuire, Clifford Moo, Robert De Nial Vaughn, Billy Braden, Marion Vaughn, Charles Lontz, and Wayne Rogers.

In the next meeting Mr. Koyos led a discussion on simple symbols of radio. A committee was appointed to set a date for the initiation of the new members. There was also a program committed appointed to arrange a program for the meetings on Thursday nights.

The club will have a winner roast Thursday, October 8, at Salt Creek. The club members are going to Salt Creek some Saturday soon to put their field phones into operation across a section of timber a mile or two long.

The members will also fix the phones in each room of the school by putting in all new wiring, new batteries, and new phone drops.

The Peppy Orchestra

Our orchestra was organized under the leadership of Mr. Hoss, who also teaches violin playing. He also brings a teacher, Miss Skeat, with him who teaches wind instruments.

The orchestra hopes to broadcast a radio program, and to play at baccalaureate and commencement exercises.

Those in the orchestra at the present are: piano-Ruth Milnes; violins-Myrna Morgan, Alberta Bunner, Bernadine Thomas, Mildred Bricker, Mary Cummins, Florence Longsdorff, Norma Friis; Joyce Burner, Rosalie Coop-er, and Louise Ann Parker; Trombone-Audrey Thrift; clarinet-Elva Austin; cornets-James Eakle, Robert Lienhart, John Roy Bonnet, Mary Ashford, Lena Hoge, and Evelyn Bricker; saxophone Alberta Cotton; drums-William Moore.

There are some new members that hope to be in the orchestra before the year is over. They are; saxophones-John L. Hoffman and Parker Brenning; cornets-Eileen Westerman and Orpha Bivens; violin-Frances Agee, Lorene McCarron, Norine Chaudoin, Eileen Stonobrakor Nigel Osborn and Dale Bernard.

Let's make the orchestra a great success this year. This can be done only by cooperation of all the pupils.

Hi-Y

The first official meeting of the Hi-Y was held September 21. The officers were elected for this year. The new president is Milford Karr. Other officers are:

Vice President--Wayne Rogers
Robert Cox
Secretary--William Moore
Treasurer--Lloyd Clary
Sergant-of-arms--Jack Pulliam
Chaplain--Ronald Mayo
Librarian--Floyd Clary

The topic being discussed is the meaning of Hi-Y. This is for the benefit of the new freshman members.

The initiation of new members will be in October. The date has not yet been revealed.

Advisors for Hi-Y are Mr. Koyos and Mr. Boll.
